Class Descriptions

Dressage Tests: Rider's Choice of any USDF Intro Level A, B, C or Training Level Test 1, 2 (Please specify on entry form). Each level to be pinned separately (Intro pinned together and Training pinned together) based upon highest percentage score.

Leadline / Walk Only: Riders may be asked to walk post, show two point, walk over a pole, circle or reverse at the walk and answer an appropriate level horsemanship question. Riders will be judged on correct position and may be lead by a parent, instructor or working student.

Walk Trot Ground Poles: Riders will navigate a course of 8 ground poles at the trot. Posting diagonals NOT to count. Riders will be judged on accuracy of steering and correct position. Riders may be asked an appropriate level horsemanship question in their flat class.

Walk Trot Cross Rails: Riders will navigate a course of 8 small cross rails at the trot. Posting diagonals to count. Riders will be judged on accuracy of steering, consistency of pace and correct equitation/ position. Riders may be asked an appropriate level horsemanship question in their flat class.

Canter Cross Rails: Riders will navigate a course of 8 small cross rails at the canter. Leads to count with simple changes allowable. Riders will be judged on accuracy of steering, consistency of pace and correct equitation/ position. Riders may be asked an appropriate level horsemanship question in their flat class.

EQUITATION DERBIES: Riders must declare speed & height (trot: small x, canter: large X OR 18"-2': x's, verticals or oxers). Riders must navigate a course of 6-9 fences in their declared speed and height. The course may consist of a walk or trot obstacle, bending lines or roll backs. Riders will be judged on accuracy of track / steering, consistency of pace and correct position / equitation. The three fence heights to be pinned separately. Overall High Point Rider prize awarded to the rider with the highest score overall in all three fence heights. In the event of a tie, the judge will ask contestants to answer a horsemanship question.

Novice Rider: Riders will navigate a course of 6-9 fences at the canter within a range of 1'-1.5' in height. The course may contain bending lines and/ or a trot fence. NO oxers. Riders judged on consistency of pace, accuracy of track, and proper position / equitation. Riders may be asked an appropriate level horsemanship question in their flat class.

Beginner Rider: Riders will navigate a course of 6-9 fences at the canter within a range of 1'.5-2' in height'. The course may contain bending lines, a trot fences, or oxers. Riders judged on consistency of pace, accuracy of track, and proper position / equitation. Riders may be asked an appropriate level horsemanship question in their flat class.
